

County's Most Beautiful Honored For Volunteer Work

County Commission President Bud Church is pictured with some of the area's volunteers honored during last week's Most Beautiful People Volunteer Awards Ceremony.

Submitted Photo

BERLIN – The Worcester County Commissioners and Volunteer Services Manager Cyndy Howell recognized area volunteers as the lifeblood of the community during Worcester County's Most Beautiful People (WCMBP) Volunteer Awards Ceremony.

The celebration honored 17 individuals recognized by Worcester County and two organizations recognized by the state.

Individuals recognized include Barbara Browning, Gladys Byrd, Phyllis East, Marie Gilmore, Anne Leach Glovier, L. Eloise Henry Gordy, Neil Gottesman, David Hall, Curt Lippoldt, Elsie Northam, Brooks Onley, Louvinia Phillips, Sylvia Sturgis, Shirley Waters and Tom Wilson.

The Atlantic General Hospital Auxiliary and the Community Church of Ocean Pines have been chosen as Worcester County's 2010 Most Beautiful by the state and will represent the county at the Governor's Volunteer Awards Banquet.

"The economy proves to be very challenging for many in our community," said Howell. "Without the help of these amazing volunteers who step forward to fill program gaps, many of our citizens would have no choice but to forgo needed services due to the costs they would incur."